

The JANERO Consultancy (www.janero.eu) together with the JAAG Consultancy GbR (www.jaag.biz) and the African Youth Foundation (www.ayf.de), will be holding a prestigious “African Business and Entrepreneurship Network (ABEN)” event in Germany on 2nd June 2007.

The African Business and Entrepreneurship Network (ABEN) is a business network which serves to connect the African Diaspora business community with other Professionals, investors, businesses, Entrepreneurs and students to secure exposure and gain insight in business and investment opportunities in Europe and Africa.

Our keynote speaker for this event is Mr. Cassidy Emma Osuji of Telecass GmbH (www.telecass.de), Germany, who will motivate and inspire us with his success story as an entrepreneur and business professional.

Mr. Osuji was born 35 years ago in Akabo-Owerri in Imo state of Nigeria to the famous Osuji family. He is the sixth from a family of seven. After two semesters in law faculty at the University of Lagos, he left for Germany via London. He has since then settled down to build a remarkable telecommunication company. Today Mr. Osuji is a major key player in German telecommunication sector.

As the best African Diaspora Business Professional ADLER 2005 award winner (<http://www.ayf.de/activities/awards.html>), and a “Cultural Ambassador Merit Award” recipient for his outstanding business strategy, helping Africans to create their own business in Germany, Mr. Osuji is the Managing Director of the remarkable telecommunication company Telecass GmbH, which is located in Stuttgart, the state capital of Baden-Württemberg, Germany. With an annual revenue of about 8.400.000 € (8.4 million Euros), TeleCass GmbH is now one of the biggest business partners of MCI WORLDCOM which is now VERIZONBUSINESS and BRITISH TELECOM. These are international telecommunication giants around the globe.

TeleCass GmbH's products includes Call-Shops software system, Call shop billing system and Calling cards that is providing jobs for foreigners especially Africans, as well as cheap calling cards that can be used in more than 31 countries. The company's newest product is the Qmobil: With Qmobil one can now make international calls from cellular phones at a price of a local call! Watch out switching your service provider!

His other companies are: CassTel UK Limited which is a provider of Voice over IP (VoIP) telephone services based in United Kingdom and TeleCass Nigeria limited, which is also based in Nigeria.

Mr. Osuji is using his industry and talent to better the lives of fellow Africans by helping them to establish call shops and provide VoIP services as a co-branded label. He is equally creating jobs in Germany by employing Germans and Africans in his firms. His social contributions doesn't end only in Europe, but also in Nigeria, where he has contributed to the re-building of 7 schools, which have been named after him as the Cassidy Osuji's Blocks.

With TeleCass GmbH, CassTell UK limited and TeleCass Nigeria limited, Mr. Osuji is living up to his name "Telecommunication Whiz Kid", one of the many names he has been called often in different media in Germany. These achievements and success in business, has been a thing of Blessing to many foreigners especially Africans, as well as Germans too.

The African Diaspora, are now in for a change in the global business and investments world, and they have what it takes to make this difference. With a businessman like Mr. Cassidy Osuji, the world can really not ask for more.

Become a partner in promoting success and entrepreneurial spirit in Europe and Africa!
